Recover faster with PRIORITY CARE

Get medical help anytime, day or night. If you need to see a doctor or specialist, Priority Care books it fast. No hassle.

- ✓ One call starts the process – Speak with an allied health professional who understands your industry. A certified translator is available, if required.
- ✓ Fast appointments – Quick access to doctors and specialists.
- ✓ Full support – From medical triage to appointments, your care is managed for you.

Why use Priority Care?

- No cost to call – Available to all Incolink NSW members.
- No delays – Get advice immediately, not days later.
- Less stress – Priority Care coordinates everything for you, so you can focus on your recovery.

This service is available to all Incolink-registered workers in NSW whose employer is up to date with redundancy contributions.

In the event of a workplace accident, if you are a member of a union, please consider contacting them for workplace and workers' compensation advice.
